CODE OF CONDUCT

Behaviour

The Albany Leisure and Aquatic Centre endorse the following Code of Conduct developed by the Sport and Recreation industry for the purpose of communicating behaviours that are expected of every person involved in community sport and active recreation. It also serves to identify the types of behaviours that will not be tolerated. This Code applies to all persons attending the Albany Leisure and Aquatic Centre.

Every person: spectator, player, club member, official, participant, administrator, coach, parent or member of the community involved with the sport, should work to ensure:

- inclusion of every person regardless of their age, gender or sexual orientation;
- inclusion of every person regardless of their race, culture or religion;
- opportunities for people of all abilities to participate in the sport and/or recreation and develop to their full potential;
- respect is shown towards others, the club and the broader community;
- a safe and inclusive environment for all;
- elimination of violent and abusive behaviour; and
- protection from sexual harassment or intimidation.

Facility

The Albany Leisure and Aquatic Centre require that the following minimum conduct standards are met when using the facilities available:

- Facilities and equipment are respected and the area used is left tidy with all rubbish placed in the bins provided;
- No alcohol is permitted and not to be consumed within the ALAC facilities;
- Smoking is prohibited within ten metres of the facility (the facility also includes the hockey turf and entryways); and
- Children under the age of 10 must be accompanied and supervised by an adult at all times.

ALAC Staff

Please be aware that:

- ALAC staff are not able to administer medication to patrons. Patrons need to ensure that all appropriate medication is readily available and an action plan to administer required medication is known.
- ALAC staff offer an umbrella of safety to patrons. An adult must supervise children under 10 at all times and ensure that their child's behaviour (regardless of age) does not impact on the enjoyment or safety of other patrons.
- ALAC staff are responsible for evacuating the ALAC when the need arises, the sporting group is to follow the direction of staff when this occurs.
