City of Albany Sportsperson of the Year Awards

The City of Albany recognises the significant contribution of sports to the well-being of the local community, including physical health and mental wellness, and the promotion of social unity and community involvement. Sports benefit people of all age groups by enhancing their physical fitness, providing happiness and stress relief, imparting essential values, fostering connections with others, supporting local activities, and building a resilient, united community united by shared passions and accomplishments.

The annual Albany Sportsperson of the Year awards are back, once again honouring and commemorating remarkable accomplishments and contributions in community sports. These awards are designed to pay tribute to and recognize the outstanding efforts of individuals, teams, clubs, and organisations that have made noteworthy contributions to the Albany sports community.

The 2024 Sports Awards will mark the inaugural awards ceremony, scheduled to take place on Thursday, 15 February 2024.

Nominations must be received by Friday, 15 December 2023.
